

G. C. QUICK & CO'S MAMMOTH MENAGERIE.

THE Proprietors of this highly interesting and exciting establishment inform the public that after seven years of unremitting exertion, during which they have had the most experienced agents employed in every QUARTER OF THE GLOBE, they have at length succeeded in forming the most complete collection of animals ever exhibited.

The world renowned creation of the MAMMOTH MENAGERIE, THE LIVING ILLUSTRATION OF GOLDSMITH'S NATURAL HISTORY, is a specimen collection in that great work being wanting.

Connected with this exhibition, is a new and truly wonderful phenomenon in the world of Mammals.

THE AUTOMATODEON.

On MECHANICAL PIANO, the most extraordinary invention of the age, performing all the functions of a ten-piece band, without the aid of man! The BEAST, REED, or STRING instrument with the most perfect accuracy. This splendid machine will be drawn on a magnificent van drawn by Elephants and Camels.

To render a thrilling interest in the exhibition, Mr. T. BROOKS will enter the cages of the largest wild beasts in the world, armed with a gun, going through with his wonderful performances showing the perfect control which is possible for man to exercise over the brute creation.

Another distinguished feature in the entertainment is the performance of the magnificent trained elephant BOLIVAR, who will be exhibited by that unequalled trainer, Mr. E. LANGWORTHY, who will also introduce the four beautiful foals, ABDULAH, WICKLIFF,

WILL, BEEF WING & BLACK HAWK.

Each exhibition will conclude with some semi-scientific scenes in which PETER MORRIS, the great Yankees delineator from Barnum's Museum, New York, will appear as Tom Thumb, Peter, & Friends, & the original author of Peter Pan, will also appear in this new production the beautiful pantomime WICKED WILL and BLACK HAWK.

READING INSTITUTE. Reading Institutes will be held in the Town of Ludlow, Vt., to commence on Monday, the 24th day of September, next, at 12 o'clock P. M., and continue three weeks.

The object is to afford young, especially teachers, opportunities for study in the very important and much neglected art of Reading.

An easy, graceful, and impressive delivery is a rare and enviable accomplishment.

The Institute will be conducted by W. A. HATCH, A. B., a gentleman of fine abilities and well qualified, having been under the tuition of Prof. MANDEVILLE, Author of a system of Education for the Poor.

Persons who are desirous of teaching, who may be connected with the Black River Academy, the ensuing term, will have an admirable opportunity of becoming proficient in a branch of PRIMARY IMPORTANCE.

All Teachers whether connected with the Academy or not, and Ladies and Gentlemen who are not Teachers, are respectfully invited to join the Class. THERE WILL BE NO CHARGE FOR LESSONS.

It is very essential that all who propose to attend should be present at the first Lecture.

C. B. SMITH, Principal Black River Academy.
